

October 23, 2023

7 Cheshvan 5784

Rise Up, Be Victorious, and Step On Through!

Come and listen, come and be still. You need to hear Me, to know My will.
Times are crazy, times are tough. But what I have to offer you is more than enough!

The world is searching for someone to blame. There's smoke and lies, it's the enemy's game. But don't get caught in the trap of deceit. Gain true wisdom when You sit at My feet!

It's a place of worship, a place of rest. Bring a fragrant offering, give Me your best!
The oil you pour out, so precious and pure, will fill your spirit with an aroma that will make you sure.

You'll be sure of My love and sure of My grace. Just lift up your eyes and see My face!
Look at My face and see the love. Open your heart and receive from above!

The course has turns and times of testing. But if you don't run the race, you'll miss the blessing!

I'm not asking you to do more than you can. I know the struggles, I walked as a man.
I walked on the earth, just like you. I felt ALL the things that you're going through.

But I paid the price so you could be free! I wiped out your debt for eternity!
So quit throwing away the gifts that are yours. Stop allowing the enemy to keep you from going through the doors!

The battle today is right where you are! It's not hidden or concealed, you don't have to look far.

If there's things in your life that don't reflect My heart, they need to be removed, that's where the battle should start!

If I send you to battle, I'll give you a plan. I'll give grace to sustain you, and I'll lead you by My hand.

What's waiting over the horizon is so much more! But you have to win the battle before you can step through the door.

I'm holding the door open, I'm waiting for you. So rise up! Be victorious! And step on through!

Isaiah 22:22- I will place upon His shoulders the key to the treasures of David's palace. He will open doors that no one can shut and He will shut doors that no one can open.